Bishop
Michael Watson

Bishop Mike Watson was born into an active Methodist family in Dothan, Alabama. He received a Bachelor of Science degree in finance and real estate from the University of Alabama, received a master of divinity degree from the Candler School of Theology and a doctor of min. degree from Vanderbilt University. Bishop Watson served as pastor in Florida, as well as a founding pastor of Covenant United Methodist Church in his hometown of Dothan. From 1990 until his election to the episcopacy by the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference in 2000, he served as the pastor of Dauphin Way United Methodist Church in Mobile, Alabama

Bishop
William Wesley Morris

Bishop Morris has served the Lord for over forty-seven years, as Pastor, DS and Bishop. As Bishop he served Alabama-West Florida and the Nashville Episcopal Areas. Post retirement, he served as the interim General Secretary of United Methodist Men. He has been the recipient of numerous honorary degrees and awards and held many significant positions. Known for his inherently evangelistic character, he was awarded the Clergy Denman Award from the Tennessee Conference. He has a sincere passion for preaching and teaching about Christian Stewardship and Missions.

Brad McClain

Brad is an ordained United Methodist minister with unique gifts for relating to and communicating with people. Through counseling, consulting, writing and speaking, Brad offers life-changing perspectives on how to experience the abundant life that God offers to every one of us. These insights come directly from Brad's experiences as a business person, as a pastor, and as a husband, father and grandfather. Through all the seasons of life, in struggle, failure, challenge and celebration, Brad has experienced the incredible and all-sufficient grace of God, and because of this grace, shares a message of true spiritual liberation and power

Maxie Dunham

Maxie is Chancellor and former President of Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, Kentucky. Widely known as an evangelist, leader, and a pioneer in small group ministries, he organized and served three United Methodist churches before joining the Upper Room Fellowship. He created the Upper Room Crusillo that later became The Walk to Emmaus. He also serves as Chair of World Evangelism for the World Methodist Council and travels globally as inspiring lecturer and preacher." He has authored over 40 books as well as video/study correspondence courses.
